Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

We have heard a lot of singers and we like some of them and don't like others, but the one that takes the cake is Claudine Longest. She is Andy Williams' wife and she sings too. The only thing is, she makes you think you are going deaf.

There is this music box which accompanies her and all you can hear is the music box playing a solo and by straining everything in you, you can hear her whisper in this Piggie accent.

Even when her accompanying music is not loud, we can hardly hear her. We like those type of singers who belt them out loud and clear.

Coming to work this morning and noticed that Mrs. F. E. Crawford has a big splash of color along side her driveway. Jougouls, Hyacinths.

Forsythia in full bloom all over town. Noticed a big bunch between the homes of Mrs. Ben Keys and Misses Erie and Ida Lee Keys.

Mr. Warfield's yard is looking pretty hot at the corner of 12th and Main.

Spring must be here because we found our first bug of the year perched on the Dogwood. Looked like a Chinch Bug.

We understand that Bob Wilson, administrator at the Murray Hospital is leaving soon.

Rev. T. A. Thacker is leaving Murray. He has resigned as minister at the Memorial Baptist Church. We were somewhat taken aback when we learned that the church he is going to is not more than the one he is now pastor of. In our worldly outlook we had figured no one was ever "called" to a small church, but always to a larger one. A fellow has to work hard at not becoming pessimistic as he grows older. The world will turn a person in that direction if he will only let it. A person must be actively conscious of this trend and fight against it.

If you have ever wondered how to tell mushrooms from toadstools, here is what you do. Eat some of them. If you are here tomorrow, they were mushrooms.

Lt. Bob Cundiff
Lt. Bob Cundiff Dies In Vietnam Action

Lt. Bob Cundiff who won his lieutenant's bars at Murray State University in January 1966, has lost his life in Viet Nam, it was reported today.

Lt. Cundiff was known by several local people since he and his wife, the former Sue F. Combs of Owensboro, lived on Hamilton Avenue while they were in college here.

Reports indicate he was part of a Demolition Team removing rock from a well. He was towered into the well and apparently was overcome by a gas of some kind. Cause of death was listed as asphyxiation.

Lt. Cundiff was the son of Mrs. Edith J. Cundiff of Owensboro. He earned his commission here at Murray State after taking four years of ROTC work.

Made More Equitable; Will Yield About $6,000 More

Councilman Preston Ordway, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Murray City Council, reported to the council last night on a proposed ordinance which makes a number of changes in the present ordinance which sets privilege licenses for operation of businesses in the city of Murray.

He told the council that with the changes in the license rates, the city would realize approximately $6,000 more in revenue.

Language in the ordinance was "lightened up" and rates were made more equitable. City Attorney Wells Overbey read the complete ordinance. After some discussion and clarification, the council approved the ordinance on the first reading.

In other action last night Councilman Leonard Vaughn reported that the Murray Water and Sewer System had paid $47,000 on bonds owed by the system as well as $20,000 in interest for a total of $67,000.

The council passed a resolution requesting an Economic Development Administration grant for a $300,000 project in the Bee Creek area. The EDA grant would be for $131,000 with another of $88,000 coming from Water Pollution Control authorities.

The city's price on installing curbs and gutters was increased by 25 cents per foot. Formerly this cost was $1.75 a foot and the council approved a price of $2.00. This cost is with engineering being furnished, with extra cost also being added for unusual terrain situations.

The council authorized up to $450 for the year for payment of utility bills for the local OEO office which is located in the basement of the Mt. Horeb Free Will Baptist Church.

Councilman Lassiter asked council approval for the asking of bids for a new dump truck for the City Street Department. The city may trade, sell or keep the hoist on the two ton truck now owned by the city.

Leonard Vaughn was named again as a member of the Murray Hospital Board. He was the Junior, Chamber of Commerce nominee.

The old City Park restroom buildings will be removed from the park.

The council approved asking for bids on a new truck for the Murray Sanitation System.

The council received a request from the Murray Chamber of Commerce to extend a 10 inch water main toward the sites to be occupied by Eli Lilly and other manufacturing firms on US 641 North. The council approved a motion that the city would extend this line as soon as any construction begins by the firms involved.

Mayor Ellis will attend the League of American Cities meeting April 7-9 in Washington, D. C. He asked the council to also approve expenses for Leonard Vaughn, Mayor Pro-tem. The council approved this request.

John Griffin, manager of Big K and Ray McKnight, Associate-Manager of the new store, were visitors at the meeting last night. Richard Tuck, Chairman of the Murray-Natural Gas Committee of the City Council, asked council approval for the request for bids for a new half-ton pickup truck for the system. He requested a V-8 motor with automatic drive. This request was approved.

The Murray Water and Sewer System also is in need of a three-quarter ton truck and it was suggested that a "package" bid request be presented to automobile dealers interested in bidding. This package bid request would be for all the vehicles approved for purchase for all of the departments of the city. This procedure will be followed.

The City of Murray will go on Daylight Saving Time the last Sunday in April, Mayor Ellis announced.

WAR GETS CLOSER TO CALLOWAY COUNTY

THE WAR comes closer to Calloway County with the news that a Murray State University graduate has lost his life in Viet Nam. Lt. Bob Cundiff, of Owensboro, one of America's finest, died in Viet Nam this week.

Calloway County has lost only one man thus far, Lt. James Scarborough who was killed here in the United States on a training flight in a helicopter.

Eight Calloway County men have been wounded thus far, most of them in helicopter incidents.

Those injured were Captain David Pinson, Captain Stanley Young, Captain John D. Vance, Pfc. Kim Wallis, Corporal Joe Pat Cohoon, Sergeant Billie Horn, Sergeant Gary McColl and Staff Sergeant William Seaman.

We believe that we have listed all of those men injured in the war thus far. If we have omitted anyone, we urge that we be notified so that we can correct this list.

The point we make in this editorial is that all of these men and many more Calloway County boys, have been in or are in a position where they may be killed or wounded.

They are there in Viet Nam to protect the American way of life, which ironically, even gives an American citizen the opportunity to fight his own government in the war effort.

We are not saying that these Calloway County men wanted to go into battle and risk their lives, but we do say that they saw their duty and went into battle.

We do not mean to intimate that they looked forward to leaving their loved ones, their families, their wives, their babies. But, we do mean that they left them anyway in order that their loved ones, their parents, their wives, their babies can continue to live in the manner in which Americans want to live.

World War II veterans fought for the American way of life, leaving their homes, their family, their loved ones, their careers and their way of life, in order to keep America as intact as possible. Many never returned, but the American way of life was able to continue.

In this day and time the threat against America is just as great as it was in the early 1940s.

Worldwide communism is still worldwide. Those who would destroy America are still active. We have those abroad in the form of Red China who wish the worst for America.

Here at home we have the two faced Martin Luther Kings who carry out "non-violent" marches and when they explode into violence as planned, they run for the bushes to get out of the way of righteous indignation of law abiding citizens. Here at home too we have the beatniks who have no purpose, the liberals who have no firm base, and the neo-fascists whose principal pleasure is in spreading mistrust and half truths.

WE STAND UP FOR CALLOWAY COUNTY BOYS AND THANK THEM FOR SACRIFICING THEIR ALL SO THAT WE CAN CONTINUE TO LIVE IN FREEDOM.

We thank them too for having the judgment, the sense of responsibility, and the all round common sense, to serve their nation.

THERE IS NO SHAME IN BEING PATRIOTIC.

There is no shame in supporting this wonderful nation. There is no shame in giving one's life for this nation which was founded on freedom and a search for God.

We are happy that many Calloway County boys try to beat the draft in only one way . . . BY VOLUNTEERING.

The people of Murray and Calloway County should be proud of every boy and girl who now serve in the Armed Forces of the United States.

America is a wonderful place in which to live and no sacrifice is too great to maintain it. We take this opportunity to offer our personal thanks to the young men and women of Calloway County now serving in the Armed Forces. We ask that God bless them and keep them and return them home to a grateful people who will know they have done all that has been asked of them.

Mrs. Effie Holland Rites Are Today

The funeral for Mrs. Effie Holland is being held today at 2:30 p.m. at the chapel of the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home with Bro. Lake Riley and Bro. Henry Hargis officiating. Burial will be in the Friendship Cemetery.

Funeralbearers are Clyde Phelps, Raymond Phelps, William Duncan, Wayne Clark, Holman Jones, and John Steele.

Mrs. Holland, age 85, died Thursday at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital. She is survived by a foster son, Harry Lester, two sisters, Mrs. Orla Gaurin and Mrs. Goldie Holland, one brother, Ocus Caraway, three grandchildren, James, Douglas, and Debbie Lester, and one great grandson.

The J. H. Churchill Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Bertie Frisby Dies On Thursday

Mrs. Bertie Wilkins Frisby of Detroit, Mich., died there Thursday at 2:20 p.m. She was 83 years of age.

Survivors are two sisters, Miss Jessie Cummings of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Epsie Bourland of Orange City, Fla.; one brother, W. C. (Chester) Wilkins of 1635 Miller Avenue, Murray; one aunt, Mrs. Ethel Ryan Orr of Mayfield.

Funeral arrangements are in complete but friends may call at the Max H. Churchill Funeral Home in Murray after six p.m. on Saturday.

HAZEL CONCORD

The Hazel PTA men's and women's basketball teams will play the teams of the New Concord Parents Club on Saturday, March 30, at 7 p.m.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

REBELS IN SCHOOL

Long hair on boys and short skirts on girls are putting worried looks on school officials. In most cases there is enough "give" on each side to let the younger and older generations get on with the business of schooling.

But occasionally there is a real deadlock, and the issue is taken to court. Who wins there? Legally, how much authority does a school have in regulating the personal appearance of its students?

Two principles are basic:

1) The school may impose any rule that is reasonably related to the educational process. For example, a school regulation against the wearing of metal heelplates was upheld in court because it reduced clutter in the halls, as well as damage to the hardwood floors.

2) The school may not impose any rule that is arbitrary and unreasonable. Thus, a rule requiring high school seniors to wear freshly fumigated caps and gowns at graduation was held unlawful, when applied to a girl who was sickened by the odor.

But while these basic principles are clear enough, it may still be difficult in a specific case to fix the dividing line between right and wrong, and use of school authority.

Consider two recent cases involving the wearing of political buttons. In each case, school officials banned the buttons. In each case, the ban was challenged in court as an infringement of freedom of speech.

Results? In the first case, the court upheld the ban. In this case, the court ruled that the ban was a reasonable regulation against the wearing of metal heelplates was upheld in court because it reduced clutter in the halls, as well as damage to the hardwood floors.

Such distinctions, giving fair weight to conflicting viewpoints, are what the law is made of. They are also, to a considerable degree, what education is made of.

Bill Monbouquette Expects Small Phone Bill This Year

By VITO STELLINO
UPI Sports Writer

Bill Monbouquette isn't expecting to run up much of a phone bill this summer.

It'll be quite a contrast to last summer when Monbouquette phoned practically every team in the majors after he received his unconditional release from the Detroit Tigers on May 15th when he refused an assignment to the minor leagues.

As it eventually turned out, that move probably cost the Tigers the pennant last season.

Monbouquette, convinced he could still pitch in the majors, kept running up his phone bill while running into rejections until the New York Yankees finally took a chance on him and signed him May 2nd.

Monbouquette made a fine comeback for the ninth-place Yankees, posting a 2.36 ERA with a 6-3 record—and this summer it looks like he'll spend his time on the mound at Yankee Stadium instead of on the telephone.

Mets Lose

Monbouquette went seven innings and allowed only one run and six hits Thursday as the Yankees topped the New York Mets 3-1. Dooley Womack finished up the final two innings to save the victory for Monbouquette. After Don Bosh singled in the first inning and Ed Kranepool tripled for the only Met run, Monbouquette pitched six innings of shut-out ball.

Wes Parker and Luis Alcaraz each collected three hits and Ron Fairly drove in three runs as the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped the Chicago White Sox 11-4. Jim "Mudcat" Grant survived a shaky first inning and picked up the victory although he yielded 10 of the 11 White Sox hits in his six-inning stint.

Camilo Pascual won his third game of the exhibition season with a strong six-inning effort as the Washington Senators blanked the Baltimore Orioles 2-0. Pascual allowed just four singles and combined with Bill Denney, who gave up only one hit over the final three innings, to hand the Orioles their second straight shut-out.

Jenkins Shines

Ferguson Jenkins worked seven innings as he pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 5-3 victory over the Cleveland Indians. Jenkins gave up three runs and nine hits during his stint. Lou Johnson's two-run single started a three-run first-inning rally for the Cubs.

Nelson Briles worked the first seven innings as the world champion St. Louis Cardinals stopped the Oakland A's 3-1. Briles pitched 15 of 16 men to face him from the first through sixth innings.

Don Wert's wild throw to first base in the 14th inning enabled the Cincinnati Reds to edge the Detroit Tigers 4-3. After the Reds loaded the bases with one out, Don Fautsch hit a grounder to third at Wert, usually a fine fielder. Wert stepped on third for a force out but then threw wildly to first to give the Reds the victory.

Griffin Is Wild

Bob Veale went six innings and struck out seven as the Pittsburgh Pirates edged the Houston Astros 2-1. The Pirates scored all their runs in the third while taking advantage of young Tom Griffin's wildness. Griffin, 20, walked three straight batters and threw two wild pitches to set up the rally.

The San Francisco Giants exploded for 22 hits while whipping the California Angels 18-3. Jimmy Davenport went 4-for-4 and five Giants—Bob Etheridge, Jesus Alu, Ollie Brown, Davenport and Jack Hatt—all hit triples. Bob Rolin pitched five scoreless innings for the Giants, allowing just three hits to take the victory.

The Philadelphia Phillies took the 78th Starfighter lost since the advantage of three errors in the American-designed plane joined seventh inning to snap a 2-2 tie the Luftwaffe in 1961.

Teacher Interviews Discussed At Meet Of Calloway FTA

The Calloway County High chapter of the Future Teachers of America held its regular club meeting Monday, March 25, in Room 129 of the school.

Shirley Bazzell, vice-president, was in charge of the program and read the devotion from Luke 6:20-31.

Kathy Stubbfield, Wilma Smith, Bonnie Hargrove, and Betty Duncanson gave the results from their interviewing certain teachers about their favorite college courses, their reasons for entering the teaching field, and their evaluations of the school plant and the conduct of its student body.

Miss Rita Farris, president, presided. Miss Ellen Watson, secretary, called the roll to which thirty members answered, and also read the minutes. Mrs. Miller gave the financial report due to the absence of the treasurer.

Requirements for attending the FTA State Convention were lowered so more students could attend, it was announced.

February was selected as the month for the selection of Mr. and Miss FTA so they could be recognized at the banquet in March. The state officers were accepted as recommended by the executive committee and the ballots will be voted at the April meeting.

Ellen Watson, Rita Farris, Debbie Cooper, and Shirley Bazzell were elected as the delegates to the FTA state convention in Bowling Green April 5-6.

Two ice chests will be purchased to be used by the club for the refreshments before the April meeting.

Pictures were made by the club photographer, Vicki Greenfield, and refreshments were served.

Mrs. George Hart Featured In Louisville Paper By Story Written By Mrs. Horton

The following story is being reprinted from the Women's Page section of the Sunday edition of the Courier-Journal & Times, Louisville.

Mrs. George Hart

It appeared along with a picture of Mrs. Hart in front of her home.

The author of this story is the wife of L. J. Horton, director of Journalism at Murray State University. As a freelance writer, Mrs. Horton has had several articles published in national women's and children's magazines.

By MELLIE SCOTT HORTON
MURRAY — Among the daughters of the Purchase who have helped make this western Kentucky area rich in character, talent and resources is Mrs. George Hart, the former Lochie Broach of Murray.

Mrs. Hart is the widow of George S. Hart who was known throughout the state as a five-term mayor, banker and schoolman. Mrs. Hart now has the distinction of being the only woman member of the boards of regents of the four regional universities — Murray, Morehead, Western and Eastern.

After the death of her husband last August, Mrs. Hart was appointed by former Gov. Edward T. Breathitt to fill Hart's unexpired four-year term as a member of the Murray State University Board of Regents. Her term will expire in 1971.

"We've been a part of the university since its inception as a teacher's college," said Mrs. Hart. "Both George and I helped to raise funds for the first building to be located in Murray. We had an original investment of interest and money in 1924 that concern has never faltered through the years."

Hart was serving his fourth term on the university board when he died. Mrs. Hart has her bachelor's and master's degrees from Murray State and has worked closely with the alumni association in various capacities. Her social sorority is Alpha Sigma Alpha.

She began teaching in the Calloway County system and served a number of years as teacher and librarian at Murray High School. The offices she held in the Parent-Teacher Association and literary associations have mirrored only a part of her interests.

One put into practice the five-year plan of the university.

Bridal Shower Held At Diamond Home For Vicki Ellis

Miss Vicki Stark Ellis, whose marriage to Jack Howard Shell will be an event of April 13, was complimented with a lovely bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Eugene Diamond at 1315 Main Street on Wednesday evening.

The gracious hostesses for the pre-nuptial occasion were Mrs. Diamond, Mrs. Bobby Fain, and Mrs. Brent McNitt.

The honoree chose to wear from her trousseau a navy blue hopsack sleeveless dress with green buttons' accent and green accessories.

Her mother, Mrs. Harvey Ellis, wore a 'colony' green knit dress with matching accessories. Both wore hostesses' gift corsages of yellow chrysanthemums.

Games were played with Miss Jan Jones, Mrs. Phillip Barber, Miss Trudy Lilly, and Miss Nannette Solomon being the recipients of the prizes.

The bride-elect opened her many gifts which had been placed in front of the fireplace. A white wedding veil and push-up, beyond the mantle above the table, which was overlaid with pink taffeta under pink net caught up at the corners with pink satin bows with white lovebirds nestled within the bows.

The hostesses presented the honoree with a green electric can opener and a deep fryer as wedding gifts.

Refreshments of mints, nuts, open faced sandwiches, and Cokes were served from the beautifully appointed table overlaid with an imported Italian handmade ivory linen cloth and centered with a bride doll wearing a handmade dress. Two white satin wedding bells also centered the table flanked by candelabras on each side. Silver appointments were used.

Twenty-nine persons were included in the hospitality.

Mrs. Neva Maxedon Has Coffee Tuesday

Mrs. Neva Maxedon, 208 Woodlawn, entertained with a coffee at her home on Tuesday, March 26, at nine-thirty o'clock in the morning.

The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Harry Sparks of Murray, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Robert A. Sparks of Lexington.

Other friends included in the hospitality were Mesdames E. A. Tucker, O. C. Wraether, Lloyd Hamer, Ann Childers, Rex Alexander, Bun Swann, Richard Tuck, J. Matt Sparkman, Leonard Vaughn, Herman Brunk, Conrad H. Jones, and Eli Alexander.

Dr. Hogancamp Is Honorary Member Of Calloway FBLA

The Future Business Leaders of America Club of Calloway County High School held its monthly meeting Wednesday, March 20, in the Jeffrey gymnasium.

Dr. Thomas Hogancamp, Dean of the School of Business, Murray State University, was elected as the honorary member of the club and this year. He was presented with an honorary membership card and a certificate. The presentation was made by Yvette Watson.

The program was introduced by the vice-president, Artie Hanelle. In the program, different members read pamphlets on job opportunities. Mark James talked about advertising. Max Cleaver discussed computer programming. Celia Taylor talked about being a personnel worker, and Judy Kehoe discussed being a secretary.

Each one was given a copy of the FBLA pledge and a sheet of typing paper. They were told to write the pledge on the sheet of typing paper. This was done in order to choose two people with good penmanship to represent the club in the penmanship contest at the convention in April.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Jenna Winchester and the officers gave their

TV CAMEOS: Eileen O'Neill

Eileen's G.I. Audiences Bolster the Ego

By MEL HEIMER

BOB HOPE learned long ago something that Eileen O'Neill has been astonished by only in the last couple of months. A collection of American servicemen, assembled between reveille, breakfast and push-ups, is beyond a reasonable doubt the greatest audience in the world, from a performer's standpoint.

"You have to experience it to believe it," says the tall, striking-looking brunette, who is one of the regulars on the new ABC-TV show, "Operation Entertainment." "I think Norm Crosby, the comedian, said it best. 'You can really get a false feeling of security,' he said after he appeared with our group aboard the aircraft carrier Constellation."

The "O.E." theme of presenting a video show for servicemen at a camp or army post was, of course, lifted from the Hope holiday-season tours overseas. Indeed, the first and a sheet directed by Jack Elmes, who was responsible for staging those famous Christmas safaris of Hope. In addition, there's a little of "This is Your Life" thrown in; mothers of soldiers or sailors now and then are flown to a base to surprise their sons on-camera.

The SHOW already has logged thousands of miles, from Lackland Air Force Base in Texas to Coronado Island, Calif., base of the Pacific fleet amphibious force—and, Eileen declares, even attracts big crowds at rehearsals.

"There's nothing really entertaining about them," she says. "But we always have an audience for them. All they see is someone singing a few bars and people milling about on the stage. But the boys stay, and then come back for the show itself—and would stay all night, if we kept going."

Miss O'Neill's job is to take part in the comedy skits and assorted other bits of business, and although it's a departure from her last big TV role, that of the beautiful sequester in "Burke's Law," she loves it. A Philadelphia, daughter of a bus driver, she's been stage-struck most of her life, but she had to go through the most of most handsome hopefuls, being named Miss go-and-so. Her finest hour may have been as "Miss 512th Troop Carrier Wing."

EILEEN WENT to Hollywood "cold," although she had worked in local Philly TV—Joe Pyle, if you want to shudder—and done some stock there. She did some TV commercials on the coast, then studied at the Columbia Pictures drama school and finally made it to "Burke's Law."

Miss O'Neill has done one or two serious roles, such as a part in the Chrysler Theatre's "A Man Called Dagger," but to date she has been most overwhelmed by playing "Walter Strick's girl in 'Batman.'" "He was the clock king and I was the clock king's moll," she said rhapsodically.

Eileen O'Neill went into "Operation Entertainment" from "Burke's Law."

Witty and artistic, she designs many of her clothes, works with mosaics, rides and swims and hangs ten with the best of them as, in her words, a "surfer girl." She lives in a Beverly Hills apartment with Chris Noel, the Armed Forces Radio sweetheart, and says they get along beautifully, possibly because they laugh at and with each other.

Like the girls in Hope's holiday troupe, Eileen and her colleagues are almost mother confessor to the servicemen they meet. "They begin to look upon us as regular folks, especially after seeing some of us girls in curlers," she says. "Those of us who can do without girls in curlers can look on Miss O'Neill in another, more lecherous light."

Sherida J. Miller & Norman Sellers Married Recently

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller Sr. of Central City, announce the marriage of his daughter, Sherida Jean, to Norman Russell Sellers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sellers of Milan, Tennessee.

The wedding took place at the First Baptist Church in Murray. The ceremony was performed by Dr. H. C. Chiles, minister, at four o'clock in the afternoon on Monday, January 29.

Attendants were Miss Dianna Thomas, and Mike Griffin, students at Murray State University. The bride is a 1967 graduate of Dawson Springs High School and attended Murray State University last semester.

The groom is a junior at Murray State University and is majoring in pre-law. Mr. and Mrs. Sellers are making their home in Murray.

ITALY SOCKED

PALERMO, Italy (AP) — Two earthquakes rocked Southern Italy Friday night, sending thousands of victims of earlier tremors to the countryside in fear. No damage or injury was reported. The first tremor occurred in the valley of Belice in Central Sicily. The second jarred Lauria on the southern tip of the Italian peninsula.

CONSTANTINE OK

ZURICH (AP) — Exiled King Constantine of Greece underwent an examination for a chronic sinus condition Tuesday and a hospital spokesman said "there is no serious illness." The king has been in Rome since he fled Greece in December after a counter-coup against the Greek military regime failed.

FRIENDLY GHANA

ACCRA, Ghana (AP) — Outgoing U. S. Ambassador Franklin Williams said Monday that judging from the friendliness shown him U. S.-Ghanaian relations are at their peak. The Negro diplomat is leaving his post to become director of the Center for Urban and Minority Affairs at Columbia University in New York.

Junketeering's Fun

RECOGNIZE THE EGG CARTONS? Who would? They've been cut up, painted and now blossom out as modily interesting flowers (left). Bird mobile was made with paper plates.

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

A KITS and crafts supplies expensive? Who says? They're not if you take up junketeering and use the most unlikely items in a new way—with a view toward their potential.

For example, an egg carton is an egg carton, is an egg carton? Is that all? Not at all! An egg carton is also a pop art posy... or it can be with a little imagination.

Cut a carton to form petals, centers or whole flowers. Glue pieces together to create a fantastic bloom. Paint the posies with tempera. Liquitex polymer medium will give a permanent finish.

For "Potted Plant" More "junk"—a strip of corrugated paper—can be rolled to make a flowerpot for your posy. Use a long stick painted green for the stem.

Cigar boxes (empty ones) intrigue you? Beautify them. Here's how.

Tissue Triangles Paint the box white with acrylic paint, then brush a small area with Liquitex polymer medium. Place a triangle of colored tissue paper over this area and brush more polymer medium on top of it.

Repeat the process, using tissue paper squares of many colors, overlapping them slightly, until the entire box is covered. The result—a colorful box of beauty to use for jewelry, odds and ends, or to serve on your desk.

Cream cartons make great banks. They're ideally shaped, for example, to make a "building" bank or a clown bank. For the latter, you can glue face, hat and ruff to the carton lid.

To paint milk cartons, wet your brush, draw it across a cake of soap, dip it in tempera and get to work.

A BEAT-UP cigar box can make a beautiful jewel box. Clowns and building banks are empty cream containers.

Paper Plate Bird Paper plates, of course, lend themselves to many projects. Easy as can be, you can turn them into a bird mobile, using a large plate (folded in half like a turnover) for the body; a smaller plate for the wings.

Junketeering is fun and comes to the rescue on a rainy day when a project is needed to pass time. So don't throw out junk—save some odds and ends that have possibilities for a bad weather report.

RICHARD NIXON is "looking forward" to working with New York's Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, he tells a throng at the airport in New York before departing for campaign work.

INVESTIGATE SHIP MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (AP) — The government Tuesday ordered the Cypriot freighter "Captain Papis" into a Uruguayan port for an inspection of its cargo-carrying facilities. Nearly 12,000 Uruguayan ship-destined for Tripoli, in Libya, died of suffocation aboard the freighter when its ventilators ceased to function after it ran aground March 1 in the Uruguay River.
